- Academic classes will be held whether or not an exam is given and students are expected to attend all of their academic classes; students should know whether or not to expect an exam in the fall and the spring or if their classes will have alternative assessments instead
- Pre-arranged absences must be approved by Mrs. Zalac
- When students have free periods, (non-academic) electives, or study halls, they needn't attend school although students may be on campus; we will have supervision for students who need to be on campus for the entire day (bus riders, etc.)
- Students who receive extended time should be proactive about their exams and be sure that they have time for lunch if they have two exams in one day
- As always, the honor code will be followed and enforced

 Tillman Center will be open for all US students from 11:55-12:25, only.
